- Providing false information to or withholding material information from the Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School's auditors, accountants, lawyers, directors or other representatives responsible for ensuring compliance with fiscal and legal responsibilities
- Embezzlement, private benefit, or misappropriation of funds
- Material violation of Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School's policy, including among others, confidentiality, conflict of interest, whistleblower, ethics and document retention
- Discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, and disability
- Facilitation or concealing any of the above or similar actions

Reporting Concerns

All Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School's Employees:

Whenever possible, employees should seek to resolve concerns by reporting issues directly to his/her supervisor or to the next level of management as needed until matters are satisfactorily resolved. However, if for any reason an employee is not comfortable speaking to a manager or does not believe the issue is being properly addressed, the employee may contact the Human Resources Manager or the Executive Director. If an employee does not believe that these channels of communication can or should be used to express his/her concerns, an employee may contact the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees within Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School. If for any reason the aforementioned communication lines is not a possibility, we highly encourage any Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School employee to contact the third party administered "Fraud Hotline".

The Fraud Hotline specializes in forensic auditing, fraud examination and asset misappropriation when and if these matters are in question or suspicion. We encourage any Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School employee with serious concerns of violation of law or policies to follow the steps below.

- Contact the Fraud Hotline by email at www.report-fraud.com. The website will walk you through the reporting process as well as allow you to upload or attach any documents, pictures or other evidence you may have.
- Contact the Fraud Hotline by phone at 1-877 -637-2830. The toll free hotline number will connect you directly to a private voicemail where you will be asked to provide as much information as can. This number is monitored by an external fraud examiner who is not employed by Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School.

Please be aware that the website and telephone call are 100% confidential. At no time will any information that personally identifies you be released to anyone, without your authorized approval. We encourage you to feel confident that you may use either or both reporting methods depending on your comfort level

Handling of Reporting Violations

Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School will investigate all reports filed in accordance with this policy with due care and promptness. Matters reported internally without initial resolution will be investigated by the Director or the Board of Trustees Chairperson to determine if the allegations are true, whether the issue is material and what actions, if any, are necessary to correct the problem. Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School's staff will issue a full report of all matters raised under this policy to the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees may conduct a further investigation upon receiving the report from the Board of Trustees Chairperson.

For matters reported directly to the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, the Board of Trustees shall promptly (generally within five business days) acknowledge receipt of the complaint to the complainant if the identity of the complainant is known and conduct an investigation to determine if the allegations are true and whether the issue is material and what, if any, corrective action is necessary. Upon the conclusion of this investigation, the Board of Trustees shall promptly report its findings to all pertinent parties. For those matters reported to the Fraud Hotline, an independent examiner will evaluate the information given and contact Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School's designated person where a course of action will be determined.

Authority of Investigative Parties

The Investigative Parties (Director, or Chairperson of the Board of Trustees) shall have full authority to investigate concerns raised in accordance with this policy and may retain outside legal counsel, accountants, private investigators, or any other resource that is necessary to conduct a full and complete investigation of the allegations.

No Retaliation

This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable executives, directors, and employees to raise serious concerns within the organization for investigation and appropriate action. With this goal in mind, no executive, director, or employee who, in good faith, reports a concern shall be threatened, discriminated against or otherwise subject to retaliation or, in the case of an employee, adverse employment consequences as a result of such report. Moreover, an employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a concern in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

Acting in Good Faith

Anyone reporting a concern must act in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the matter raised is a serious violation of law or policy or a material accounting or auditing matter. The act of making allegations that prove to be unsubstantiated, and that prove to have been made maliciously, recklessly, with gross negligence, or with the foreknowledge that the allegations are false, will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense and may result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Depending on the circumstances, such conduct may also give rise to other actions, including civil or criminal lawsuits.

Confidentiality

Reports of concerns, and investigations pertaining thereto, shall be kept confidential to the extent possible. However, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation, Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School cannot guarantee complete confidentiality. Disclosure of information relating to an investigation under this policy by staff, directors, or others involved with the investigation of Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School to individuals not involved in the investigation will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense and, with respect to Leonardo da Vinci Health Sciences Charter School employees, may result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment. Depending on the circumstances, such conduct may also give rise to other actions, including civil or criminal lawsuits.
